An indebted, overworked agent harassed by a constable and robbed by a petty thief, all observed by a self-serving neo-fascist.

A group of homeless and migrants, hopeless under the bridge, surround the corpse of a disabled child ... while over the bridge a handsome, wealthy couple struggle with their inner emptiness.

Three bankers handle the fallout of huge losses by engaging a mythical consultant with the goal of appearing like knights in shining armor.

Two single parents, focused on their careers, place their kids in a fence enclosure, where they find a ball and fight over it.

A lonely, retired man eyes up his tiny pension, after 37 years of work performs his ritual to make others feel like he does.
